

Yes stadium, but without public money

Written by non specificato

Tuesday, 29 April 2008 00:00 -

dal Messaggero del 29-04-2008

ROME (April 29) - 'It will be possible to build stadiums dedicated to football sidelines with a bordocampo, where live activities linked to typhoid because grow. The mayor of Rome, Gianni Alemanno, said he was "available" to build new stadiums for the ASRoma and SSLazio, 'availability that relates to the identification of the most suitable. The administration, however, not make a penny - said the mayor - I need money for hospitals, not for the fields that will be born with the contribution of society "